Response in Prayer

Let us pray:

O Christ, we read that you spoke and acted with authority, and people were amazed. We, your followers, confess that we are often hesitant to speak up about our faith; we are often uncomfortable reaching out to someone who is "different". Forgive us, we pray.

Grant us courage to speak truth when needed – grant us humility to hear truth when it is aimed at us.

Stretch us beyond our comfort zone to act with your compassion toward those in need – and to humbly receive your compassion from others when we are the ones in need.

Strengthen us to be your church, O Lord, and grant us your patient wisdom that we may live in such a way that we honor your name and attract others to your side. In your name, O Christ, we pray. Amen.
