Transfiguration Sunday

On this last Sunday before Lent begins, we mark the turning point in Jesus' earthly ministry as we read of his wondrous and mysterious transfiguration. God gives to Jesus and the three disciples present a foretaste of the glory that will be revealed in him. From this point on, Jesus turns from ministering to the masses in order to focus more intentionally on teaching the disciples. The path of Jesus now takes him and us into the shadow of the cross.

Please remember to silence all cell phones and pagers in preparation for worship

Gathering

A silent prayer to prepare for worship: "Ever-present God, help me this morning to see you more clearly; to love you more dearly; and thus follow you more closely, faithfully, and sacrificially. Amen."

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude	"Exalt the Lord Our God" Ruth Jacoby	by R. Ridings
*Call to Worship	Psalm 50	UMH 783
*Opening Prayer
*Hymn	"See the Morning Sun Ascending"	UMH 674
*Scripture	Mark 9:2-9

Response in Prayer

Let us pray:

Like Peter, James and John, we sometimes have no idea who you really are. Forgive us for taking you for granted, Lord; forgive us for so often thinking that you exist to serve us

* Please stand as you are able and our needs; forgive us for our selfishness, and lack of self-lessness when it comes to helping others.

Lord Jesus, open our eyes, our minds, our hearts to the wonder and majesty of who you are. Break through the barriers of pride and "propriety" to enable us to love with out-serve and to serve your purpose without reservation.

Help us, O Christ, to know you better and to know your will more clearly that we may better represent you and faithfully follow you. Amen.
