Trinity Sunday

The Sunday after Pentecost recognizes the Trinity: Father/Creator, Son/Redeemer, and Holy Spirit/Comforter. The scriptures provide an abundance of rich imagery for understanding & worshiping our Three-In-One God who loves us, forgives us, changes us & who always welcomes us!

Please remember to silence all cell phones and pagers in preparation for worship.

- L: Glory to you, almighty Father, for you created the world and all that is in it.
P: Glory to you, almighty Father, for you sent your only begotten Son, that we may have eternal life.
L: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for you being God became human and dwelt among us.
P: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ; for us and for our salvation you endured the cross, died, and rose again!
L: Glory to you, Holy Spirit: Comforter, Counselor, and Sanctifier.
P: Glory to you, Holy Spirit, for you are the Giver of Life: come and rule our lives.
Glory to you, our God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer of life, for now and for eternity.

(in unison)

Holy God, from you we learn what it means to love as a father: sacrificially and unconditionally. For your sake this day, we honor our fathers who gave us life, and we thank you for their love, guidance, example and strength.

We thank you, God, for gentle arms that held us as infants, welcoming us into the world; for adopting arms that made room for us and gave us family; for strong arms that picked us up when we stumbled or fell; for steady arms that gave us support when we were unsure of our steps; for wise and loving arms that helped us learn to live on our own; for faithful arms that led us to Christ and to the church.

Loving God, we pray for fathers of growing children. Give them an abundance of patience; a basketful of wisdom; a dose of humility to rely on you; and a houseful of love that sees and seeks the best in their daughters, sons and wives.

Bless and keep in your care the men of our church who would be fathers if they could; and those men among us who care for other's children as a father would.

Eternal God, grant your peace to those this day that miss their fathers who have passed from this life into eternity; and to those fathers who grieve the loss of a child. We lift these, and all our prayers, in the name of Christ Jesus; amen.

Happy Father's Day!

One Sunday in 1909, a young woman named Sonora Smart Dodd sat in a pew listening to a sermon honoring mothers. Her mother had died some years before, so her father had raised her by himself. She began to wonder why there wasn't a day to honor fathers. Sonora decided to arrange for a tribute to be paid to her father at a church in her hometown of Spokane, Washington. The date was June 19, 1910. Many believe that this was the beginning of Father's Day.

Another view is that Dr. Robert Webb, pastor of Central Church, in Fairmont, West Virginia, held a service giving tribute to fathers in 1908. Regardless of which story is the correct one, it is certain that President Calvin Coolidge was the first president to choose a special day to honor fathers. He proclaimed the third Sunday in June as Father's Day in 1924.
