Holy Communion

The Lord’s Supper is first and foremost, a sign for us of our redemption by Christ’s death on the cross. In celebrating Holy Communion we give thanks for and commemorate this central event of our Christian faith, while giving thanks to God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our celebration reminds us of our unity in the Spirit, pointing us outward in ministry to the world and pointing us forward to the ultimate fulfillment of God’s promises in Christ.

Please remember to silence all cell phones and pagers in preparation for worship.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

L: From shore to shore
P: Let God’s praise be sung
L: From mountains high, to valleys low,
P: Let the echo of praise resound!
L: From young and old, sinner and saint,
P: Let thanksgiving for God’s saving grace abound!
L: Wherever God is worshiped,
P: Let love, holiness and justice be found!

*HYMN

“God of the Ages”

*OPENING PRAYER

L: As those being transformed by grace, let us pray:
All: Holy God and Faithful Friend, we lay aside all our pretense in the light of your holiness. We forget that we – and others – are created with wonder and delight in our souls. Forgive our anxious seeking after things that only clutter and complicate our lives. Forgive our busy-ness that leaves little time for devotion with you and service for you. Free us from meaningless distractions that cannot fulfill. Renew and strengthen our longing for joy; to love and be loved; and to find our significance in you.

 Please stand as you are able*

Redeeming God, as we celebrate the freedom we enjoy in our country, help us to use our freedom not for license, but for service; not for privilege but in humility caring for the least, the last and the lost. In your acceptance, we find delight. In your forgiveness we find hope. In your grace we find strength to change. In praying, we offer ourselves to you, through your Son, our Savior – Jesus Christ. Amen.

ANTHEM

“The Battle Hymn of the Republic”
Chancel Choir

Ward

At least one historian records that our church building was used as a field hospital for Confederate soldiers and captured Union wounded during the nearby Civil War “Battle of Ball’s Bluff”. The choir would like to dedicate today’s anthem to the men of faith who lived and died within these walls as a result of that battle. Of note, future Supreme Court Justice, Lt. Oliver Wendell Holmes (Union), was wounded in this battle; the first U. S. Senator from Oregon, Col. Edward Dickinson Baker (Union) was mortally wounded – the only U. S. Senator to ever be killed in battle.
