*CALL TO WORSHIP Micah 6:1, 6-8

L: We come to listen to what the Lord says.

P: With what shall we come before the Lord? How can I show proper respect to God who is above all else?

L: Shall we come with a wallets full of offerings, with health kits and food for Intefait?

P: Will God be impressed with our thousand pounds of food for those in need? What if I offered my own flesh and blood to pay for my sin?

L: God has made plain how to live and what we need to practice; what is required of men and women, young and old.

P: We are to do what is just and fair in all our dealing with people;

L: We are to love mercy and kindness so that others can even see it.

P: And, we are not to take ourselves too seriously – instead, take God seriously and put God first.

Yes, we come to listen to what the Lord says, and to offer our thanks and praise with humility.
