24th Sunday After Pentecost

All Saints Sunday

The first Sunday of November is a day of remembrance for the saints, with the Biblical meaning of all Christians of every time and place. We celebrate the communion of the saints as we remember the dead, both of the Church universal and our local congregation.

Each year, we remember those of our membership who have died since last All Saints by reading their names and lighting a candle on the Altar Table.

Please remember to silence all cell phones and pagers in preparation for worship.

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

A silent prayer to prepare for worship: “O God, we praise you and offer our thanks for all your servants, who having finished their course on earth, now dwell with you in eternity. Inspire and strengthen all who worship here today to follow their example of steadfast faith, caring love, and joyful hope. Amen.”

WELCOME (Please be seated following the greeting)

*OPENING PRAYER

L: Let us pray:

P: Loving God, the witness of those who have lived their faith before us gave testimony to the life-giving and life-changing power of the resurrection. By your presence among us and through our remembrance of your saints, form and re-form us in Christ; in music that touches the soul and through your Word that shapes our thoughts, conform us to your good and perfect will; that we may live up to our being called saint. Through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

 Please stand as you are able*

NAMING OUR HONORED DEAD

As the names of our deceased members/former members are called, their family members and those who’s lives were influenced through their witness for Christ and love for others, are invited to stand.

PRAYER

L: Let us pray:

P: O God of both the living and the dead, we praise your holy name for all your servants who have finished their course in faith, especially for those whose names we have lifted up to you this morning. We pray that, encouraged by their example and strengthened by their fellowship, we may be partakers with them of the inheritance of the saints in light; through the merits of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

HYMN “When We Are Living” UMH 356

All in our membership who have experienced the death of a loved one are invited to come forward and to light a candle of remembrance and thanksgiving for their faith.
